

Dangers of the Catapult

By Trinity Creevey

CHAPTER 1

Whoops

"That was epic," said Dawson. "Bags going next," he said straight afterwards.

"Okay mate, let's get ready. I'll put your harness on while you clip your snowboard on your feet," said Eddy the instructor. "Do you like Jasper, Alberta Riley," said Eddy.

"Sure it is really good," replied Riley.

"So have you gone on the Catapult launcher before Dawson?" said Ailish.

"No," replied Dawson.

"Okay let's go Catapult jumping," shouted Riley excitedly.

Dawson got into the Catapult.

"Hey what does this button do," asked Dawson.

"NOOO," yelled his friends and the instructor. To late!

Dawson got thrown the other way. Not into the safety zone on the snowy mountain. Just then Dawson hit his arm against the rocky wall on the side of the mountain. All his friends could hear was Dawson's cry of pain.

Chapter 2

Help, Need Doctor

"We need to help him," said Riley worriedly.

"We do," replied Eddy. "Okay which one of you is the eldest," said Eddy urgently.

Ailish stepped forward. "I am,"

"Okay. You need to go on the catapult launcher with Riley to the exact same spot he landed on, then when you see him pick him up and put him on this," Eddy gave Ailish a sleeping bag and gave her a safety gear belt for Dawson "I trust you Ailish and Riley,"

Ailish and Riley got into the Catapult. " Eddy can you come with us, I'm a bit scared," asked Riley.

"Sure," Eddy responded. So Eddy squeezed in the catapult. It was too much weight for the catapult.

The catapult malfunctioned. It was rocking crazily. sideways, downwards. They were getting dizzier by the minute. Then it launched them into the misty air. "Help," yelled all of them. Noone saw them.

They landed on a soft pile of snow, which was good. "where are we guys? " asked Ailish who was feeling very scared.

" Don't know," both boys replied.

" Well we need to get out of here," said Ailish.

Chapter 3

RUN!

" Help can anyone hear me," cried Dawson in pain. " I...I can't move my, my arm." Dawson got up carefully and looked around the area. All he could see was snow trees and....." Holy cheese balls," Dawson nearly fell off the mountain. He quickly ran to the nearest tree and hugged it. He hugged it with one arm and said. " I need help," Dawson cried. Just then he noticed a cloth like shape on the ground. He picked it up. Yes it was a cloth, a big cloth, so now he can use it to be sling for his arm. He put it on. " Hello anyone there," yelled Riley. " Hey where is Eddy," said Riley.

" He went to scan the area," replied Ailish.

"Argh!"

" Who was that?" said Ailish. "Eddy," both Riley and Ailish shouted.

In the distance they could see Eddy running towards them. " RUN!"

Eddy caught up to them. " There is a pack of wolves coming,"

Ailish' s Heart stopped beating. First Dawson, now us.

" Ailish c'mon the wolves are about to get us," said Riley.

Ailish started to sprint. In the corner of her eye
she could see the wolves. They were like bulls, bulls running 90mph. " Ailish down here," screamed Riley.

" Riley I'm right next to you, I'm not deaf,"

" Sorry, but follow me. Go to the path leading to the woods," Riley ran in the direction he was pointing. Wait where is Eddy? Ailish and Riley couldn't see him. Then they did. He was lying on the snow unconscious.

Chapter 4

Too Late

The wolves were slowing down to see if their lunch was ready to eat. " No," yelled something behind a rock. Whatever it was it looked like a human, It was a teenager.

It was Dawson. " Dawson no don't go out there you will get hurt I'll deal with it," said Riley bravely. Just then he gave a Ailish a small flirting like smile. " You stay here too," he said. He ran where Eddy was lying.
He picked him up and put him on his shoulders. Uh oh The wolves started to run.

" Run Riley run," shouted Ailish and Riley. Riley was sprinting for his life, Well he was jogging for his life because he had a 25 year old person on his shoulders.

" The wolves are catching up Riley go, go, go," yelled Dawson. Riley was just about there when he put down Eddy and stretched. " Ailish can I tell you something? I have feelings for you,"

" It's all right, but let's stop talking about this and figure out how to get rid of the wolves," said Ailish Too late. One of the wolves was right behind Ailish. She stepped forward without turning around. It was a good idea, except you should look where you step. Ailish fell over and the others started to run except Riley. He quickly helped her up.

They ran as fast as they could to catch up but they we're still behind. The wolves were coming, again.

Chapter 5

Home sweet home

Riley looked behind his shoulder to see if the wolves were still there. No, they are not. All he could see was a helicopter.

"OMG it's a helicopter, Ailish, Dawson and Eddy look," just then Eddy woke up. He saw the helicopter. All of them ran to it. They got in and put their harness on.

"Hi my name Erin, Erin Buttiefieg but you can call me Erin. I heard a painful cry and I was wondering who it was, but then I noticed that Eddy and the three of you weren't here and of course I couldn't see you because it was really foggy so I called a rescue party. It took about an hour or two to find you," Erin saw Dawson's arm and got a paramedic to come out. The paramedic said that Dawson's arm was definitely broken and that he would need surgery on it too. He also looked at Eddy and said that he will need medicine four times a day for a week.

"Ailish your Mum wants to meet you and your friends at Catapult Land to discuss something and I don't think it is good," said Erin

The propellers started and they took off. On the way all of them had something to eat and drink. Finally they got there.

"AAAh home sweet home. Well not exactly, but you know what I mean," joked Riley.
